Policy 6305

Parental Access to Instructional Materials

In accordance with federal law, state law, and Clinton Board of Education (the “Board”) policy, parents shall be permitted access to instructional material used as part of the educational curriculum for any student and all curriculum approved by the Board’s curriculum committee established pursuant to section 10-220 of the Connecticut General Statutes and all associated curriculum materials (“Curriculum”). Curriculum does not include academic tests or academic assessments.

“Instructional material” means any instructional content that is provided to a student, regardless of its format, including printed or representational materials, audio-visual materials, and materials in electronic or digital formats (such as materials accessible through the Internet). The term does not include academic tests or academic assessments.

Upon request, the district shall permit parents to inspect any Instructional Material and Curriculum. The district shall grant reasonable access to Instructional Material and Curriculum within a reasonable period of time after a parental request is received.
